Active

Jack Wilson, Sue Carver, Doug Wright, and Marilyn Dapses can frequently be seen working on decorations and publicity for dances as well as assemblies.

Sue Bourne has worked in many assemblies and devotes much of her time to the speech field.

Cheri Matt and Dave Morely keep busy working on various committies around North High.

Active seniors in music are Mary Brockway, Dave O'Dell, and Mike Barham.

Active in club work are seniors Jack Austin, Ellen Williams, and Judy Larsen.

Seniors

Jay Haskell, Kathy DeLapp, and Tom McCarty take an active part in the Student Government.

Mike Marr, Pam Giles, and Chuck Gahlsdorf devote much time to out-of-school activities.

Assemblies, talent shows, and publicity find Tom Smith, Joyce Fuhr, and Sheryl Forrest busy behind the scenes.

Scott Berdell, Roy Nickerson, and Geof Lankow engage in fall and spring sports.

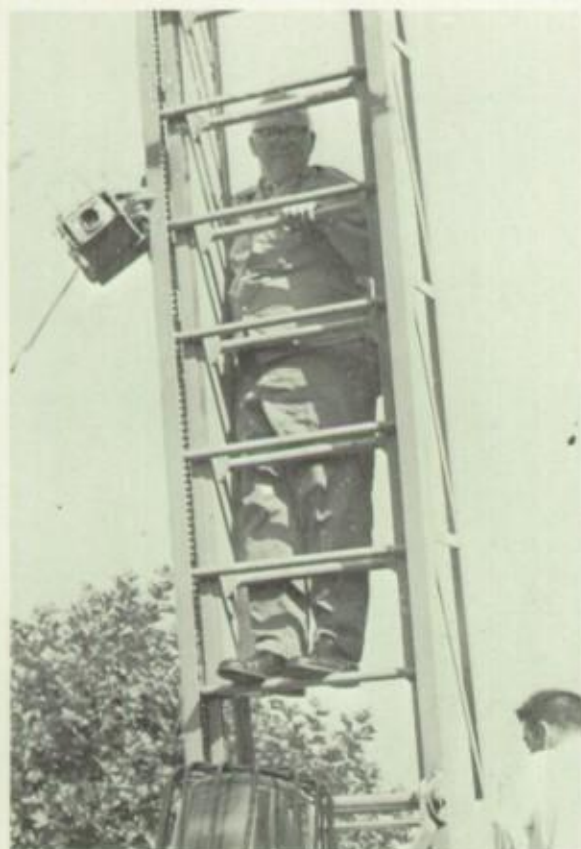

Joe Tompkins, noted cameraman about town, had the honor of crowning Miss Tall Portland of 1964. (Photo courtesy of Capital Journal).

Junior Activities

A crowd gathers in the cafeteria as club pictures are taken.

Rosalind Slattum vigorously munches an apple.

After school the cafeteria is used for mingling, relaxing, and snacking.

Junior boys combine studying and eating after school in the cafeteria.

A group of girls consisting of Sue Musser, Pam Ampriest, Sally Lucas, and Carolyn Claggett enthusiastically depart to decorate the goal posts.

Judy Senkovich and Lesli Swink rest among the decorations of "Harvest Moon."

Concentrating on the strategy of the team is Clay Dyer.

Juniors demonstrate enthusiasm at a football game by running onto the field after a Viking victory.

Charlene Rinne applies her acting skills.

A sisters act in Vik Varieties is Tracee and Penny Dougherty.

"Honey chil", where ya'll been?" drawls Chris Richardson.

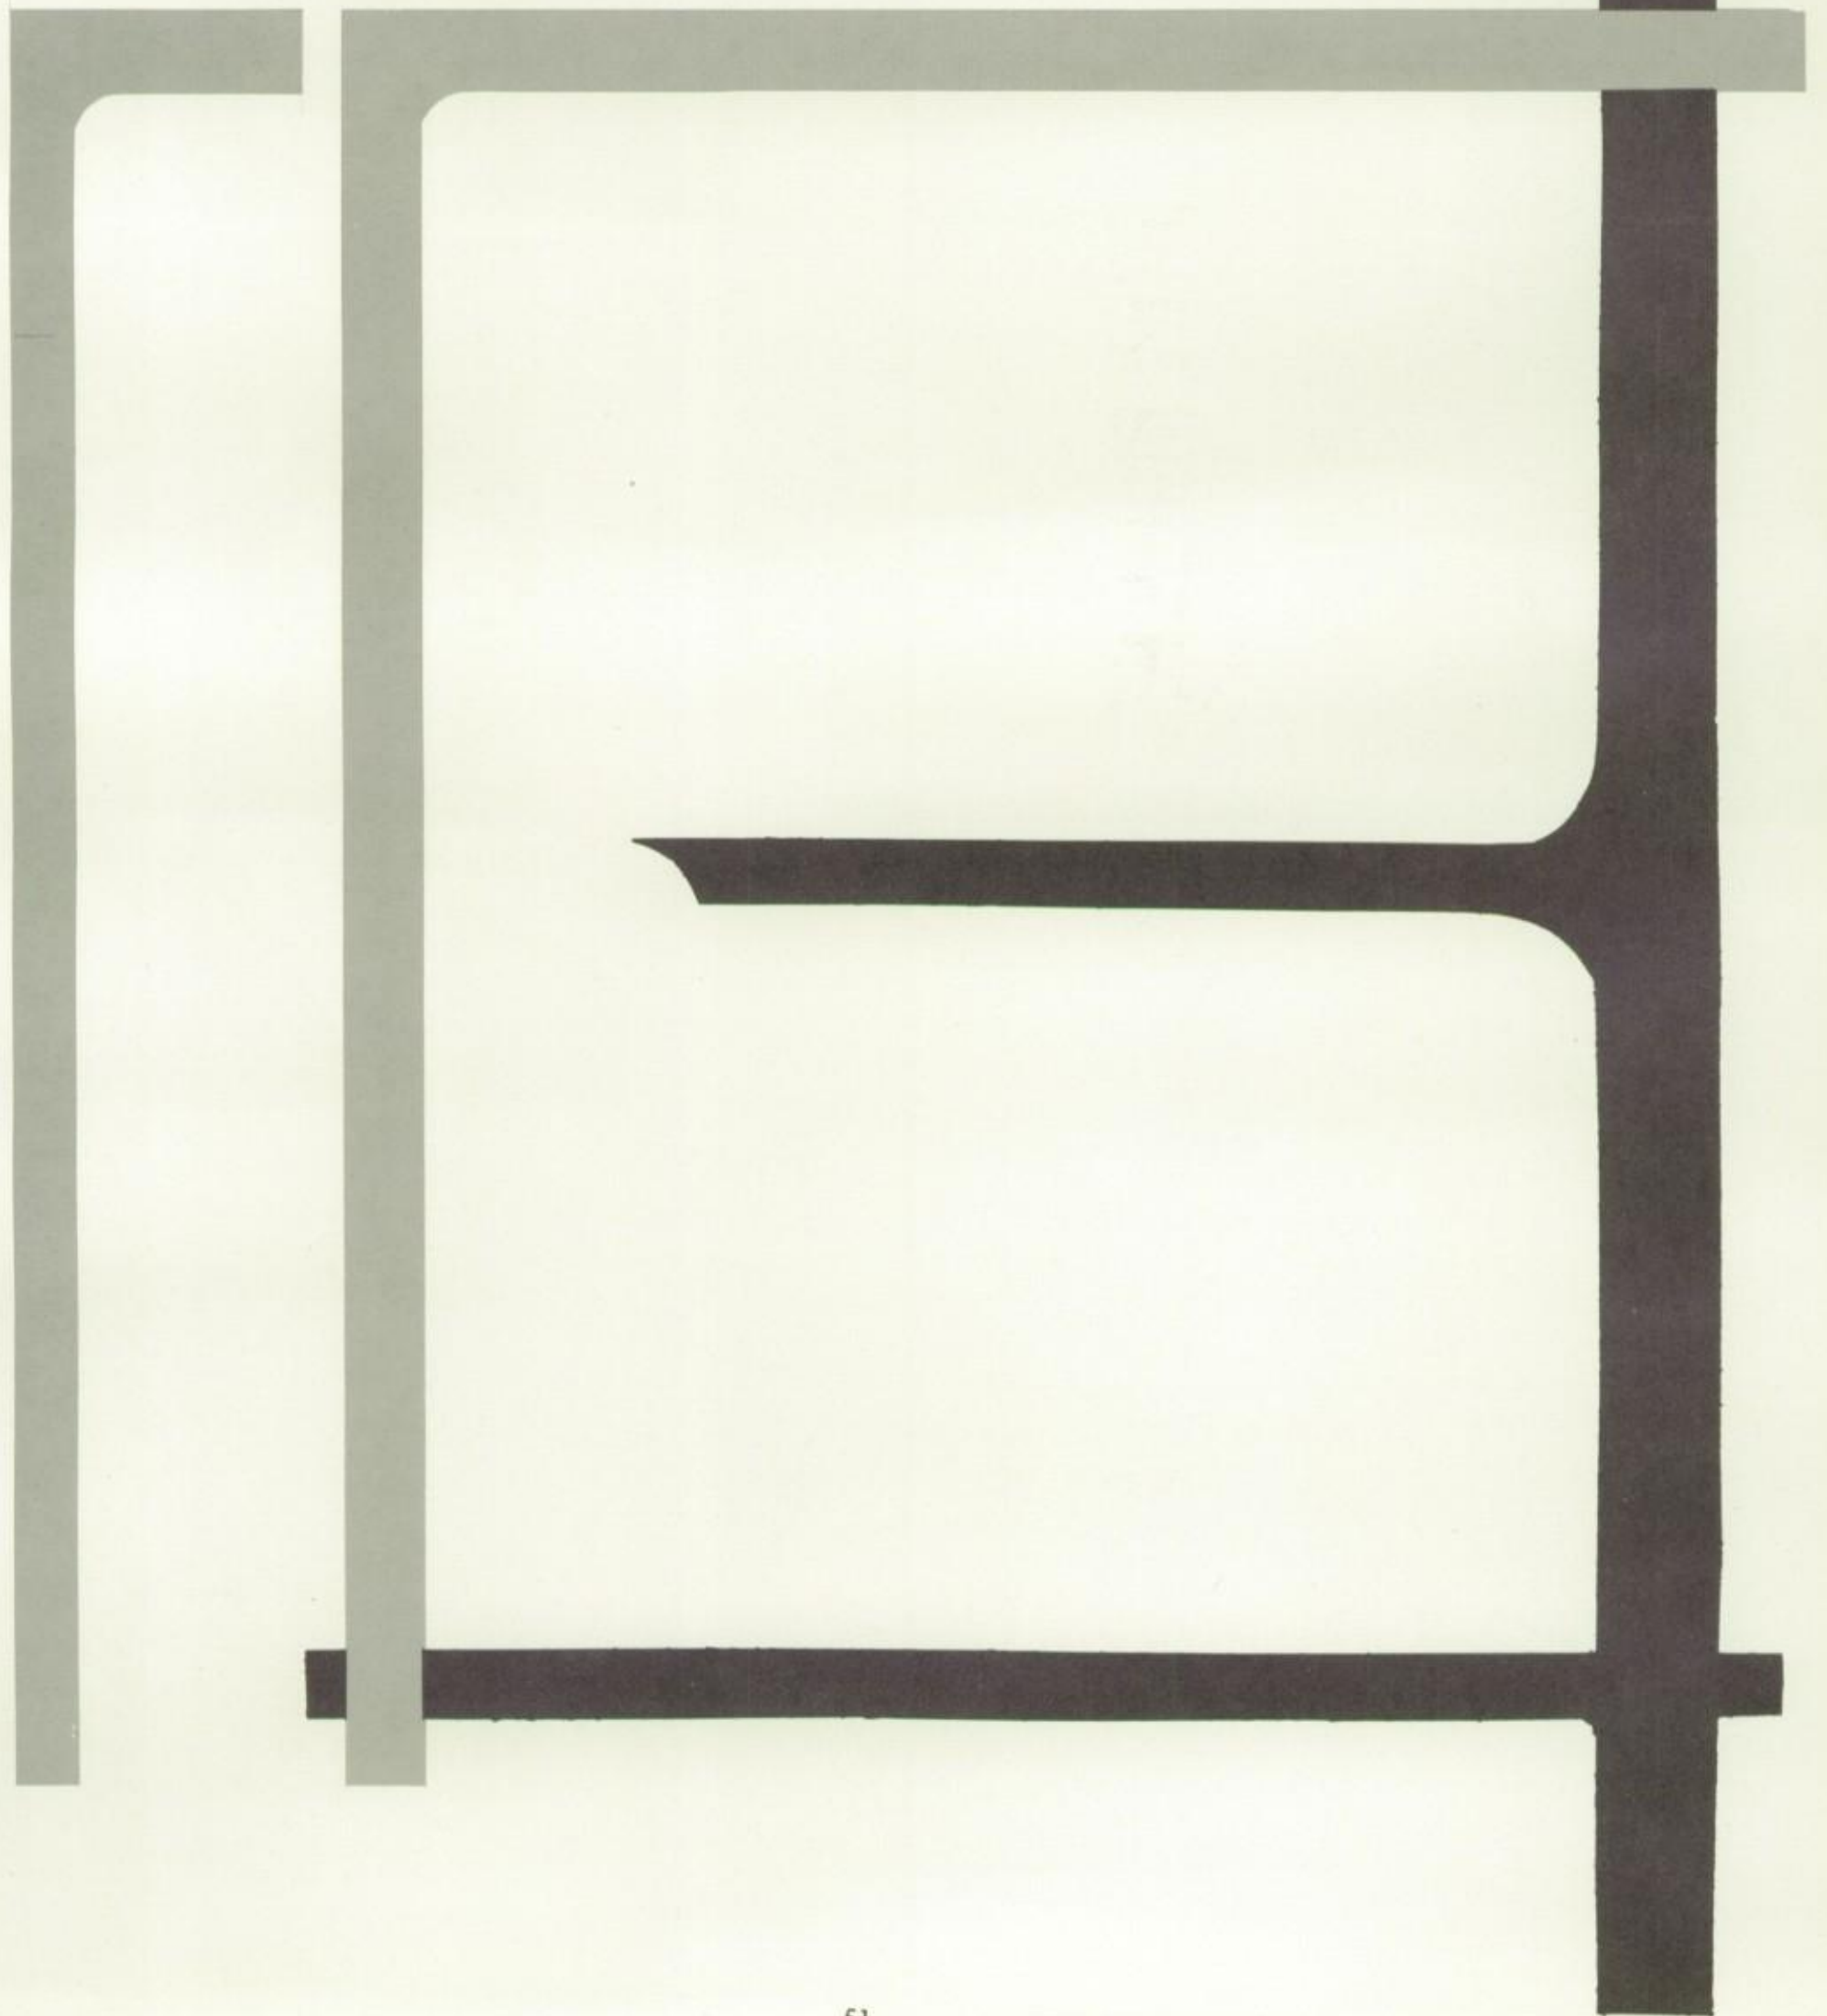

John Fralich shows his muscles to Linda Anglin and to a member of the older generation.

Jan Anderson, a member of National Athletic Honor Society, passes out programs at Vik Varieties.

Hazel Green Elementary School

School Board and

These are the members of the Salem School Board. It is their duty to work out major budget items, work with the superintendent of schools, and raise money needed for expenses of the school year. The District School Board meets on the second and fourth Thursday of each month, in the Administration building on Ferry Street. The members include from left to right; Mr. Hammel, Mr. Daniels, Dr. King, Mr. Ward, chairman Mr. Hammer, Mr. Schmidt, Mrs. Maltby, Mr. Boise, Mr. Enright, and Dr. Martin.

E. A. Carleton has been principal of North Salem High since 1946, and has done an excellent job as administrator of the split shift.

George (Bill) Hanauska, works as vice-principal of the morning shift of juniors and seniors.

Administration

Don DuBois has undertaken the job of vice-principal of the sophomore shift.

Gurnee Flesher, who is principal of the afternoon shift, will be the principal of the newly built McNary High School.

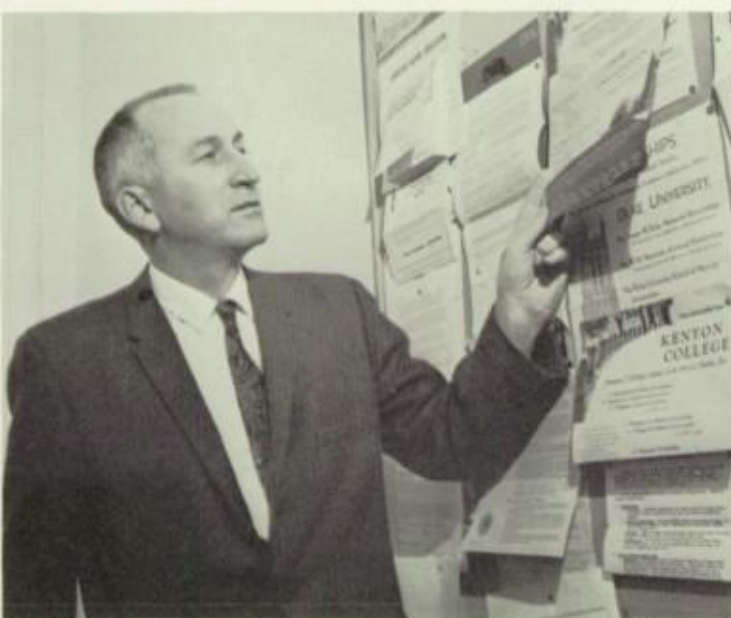

Rita Gloor and George Strozut serve as Dean of Girls and Dean of Boys, respectively.

June Emerson works as Dean of Girls for the seniors and juniors on the morning shift.

Ray Myers, Dean of Boys for the morning shift, works as the advisor of the ASB council.

Stewart Leek spends his days in the college center working with college bound students.

Vera Cochell keeps very busy as one of the guidance counselors in the office.

Clay Eggleston spends his time working as athletic co-ordinator for all sports at North Salem High.

National Athletic Honor Society

North Salem High School is one of the few schools in Oregon to hold a national membership in an athletic honor society. Prerequisites for membership are: to maintain a 3.0 GPA for three semesters, and to be a member of "S" Club.

Geof, "King of the Desk", listens attentively when spoken to.

Bruce Smith is the typical guy who comes to NAHS meetings--with food in his hands.

Tom Snethen, Mike Smith, Rod Allison, Jerry Chapin and Malcom Snider all show different expressions to a new idea.

Home Economics Club

The major duty of Home Economics Club is the maintenance of Hi-Home. Hi-Home is used for club meetings, home economics classes, and faculty teas. Principal money making project of the school year was the sale of chrysanthemums for the final North-South football game. Throughout the year, Home Economics club saved for the purchase of a davenport for Hi-Home. Each year Home Ec. Club presents an Honor Award to an outstanding senior home economics student. The goal of the club is to impress upon its members the importance of the homemaker. Girls are taught the principles of home management and the importance of good family relations.

"A little dab will do ya. . . they love to get their fingers in your beard."

Mrs. McFarland. . . "This is Your Life."

Pat Jones applies her cooking ability with Best Foods Mayonnaise.

Athleta

Athleta is an organization devoted to the purpose of providing wholesome recreational activities for all girls of North Salem High School. Opportunity is provided to make new friends, practice good sportsmanship, and improve sports skills through the many and varied programs sponsored by the club. The experiences and friends gained through Athleta will long be remembered.

Senior-Junior Members: Row 1: Ivy Partridge, Adele Baker, Jan Edlund, Betty Willett, Caryle Randall, Barbara Shryock, Anita Eckstein, Elaine Henderson, Terry Strickfaden, Nancy Widick. Row 2: Maureen Murphy, Virginia Mudgett, Margaret Connelly, Sue Marr, Bonnie Butler, Sharon Koch, Paula Riches, Judi Saunders, Connie Kamph, Patti Magines. Pixie and Terry enjoy gossiping at a typical informal Athleta meeting.

Athleta girls help decorate the annual Christmas tree, which was displayed outside the big gym.

"And let me tell you this about that. . ." advises Pam Armpriest.

Future Farmers of America

North Salem High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America is affiliated with both the state and national organizations. Each of these organizations has a yearly program of work.

This year's activities in the Salem Chapter were displaying animals, crops, and shop-constructed equipment at the State and County Fairs. Delegates from the North Chapter attended the State and National conventions. The chapter also sends representatives to the District Public Speaking and Parliamentary Contests and a leadership contest.

The members carry on an annual contest with Home Economics Club to see which club can raise the most Christmas baskets for the Salvation Army. The year ends with a Parent and Award night.

Jim Trett and Derral Burright prepare food for the F.F.A. barbecue.

Members of F.F.A., Home Economics, and French Clubs collected Christmas baskets this year for the Salvation Army.

French Club

The purpose of French Club is to provide students of French an opportunity to learn more about the culture, history, and geography of France in relation to its European neighbors, as well as to have fun together in a French atmosphere. Throughout the year several guest speakers were featured at meetings which included folk dancing, singing, movies, and American games played in French. Last year at Christmas, Le Cercle Francais had a welfare project and spent the evening caroling in French.

"This is what we do when our new members are initiated," cackles Helen Paulus, President.

This is a French Club meeting?!

Latin Club

The goal of Latin Club is to augment interest and understanding in the classical cultures. Activities have included the annual initiation; the joint Christmas celebration with South Salem, and several Roman plays. Latin club received proceeds for their treasury from the sale of football programs.

Basketball

Ten juniors (counting the managers) and two seniors made up the basketball team at North this year. The Vikings surprised almost everyone, except themselves and the student body, by finishing in first place in District 8A-1. Looking poor in their opening games, but coming on strong at the end of the season, they defeated second-place Albany by 32 points. Later the team moved on to beat South for the fourth straight time, 68-46.

With the district 8A-1 championship, the team went to the State Tournament in Eugene only to be defeated by state champion Parkrose and Tigard the leading scorer in the state.

Swimming

Although North Salem's tankmen ended with a one win seven loss record, they made it tough for each of the teams they met. School records were established by Tom Lengyel in the 400-yard freestyle and Steve Beal in the 100-yard butterfly. The 160-yard medley relay team, consisting of Rich Woolfe, Tom Lengyel, Steve Beal, and Mike Holtsclaw, also set a school record.

Despite the many outstanding individual accomplishments, the team was defeated in the majority of district meets.

Viks show happiness after thumping Albany in night game.

Mr. Schaefer:

The Vikings as a team would like to give their appreciation for such a fine coaching job that you have done this year. The team had a good season, but without your guidance and helpful understanding it would not have been possible for the team to finish as third in the state. Again, the team gives its thanks for a job well done.

Vikings destroy Albany on latter's field. This game insured the Viks of a third straight district title.

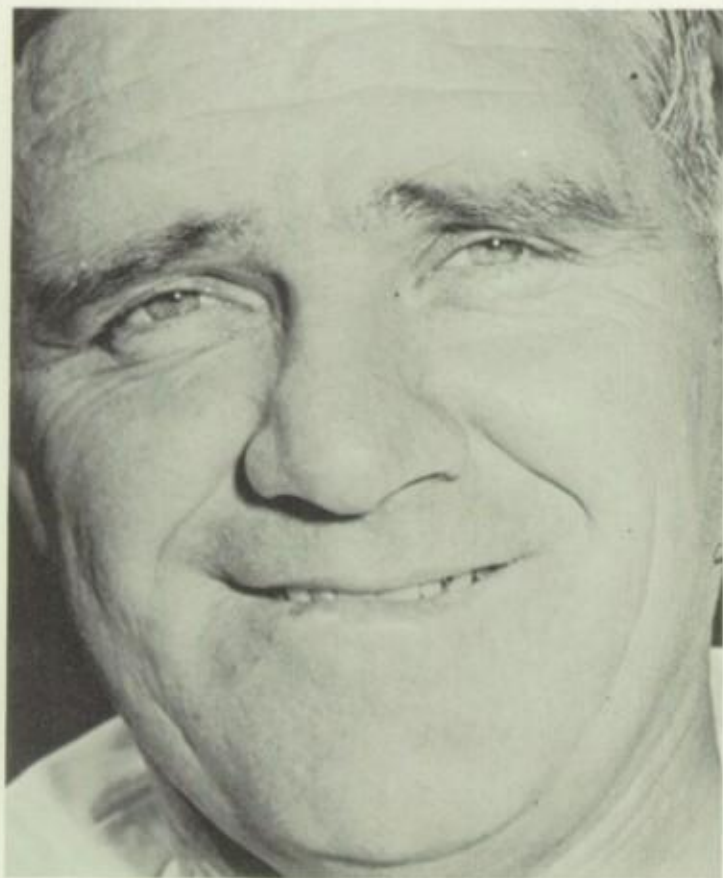

Keeping score and compiling statistics is Dick Woelk.

Terry Garner (walking) has been given good advice by Coach Schaefer.

Track

Coach Herb Johnsrud concludes his career as head track coach at North Salem High. Mr. Johnsrud has done a tremendous job of coaching the team, usually coming up with a winning combination. This year's team has ended its season as one of the most successful in the history of North, which is appropriate for such a fine coach.

Tennis

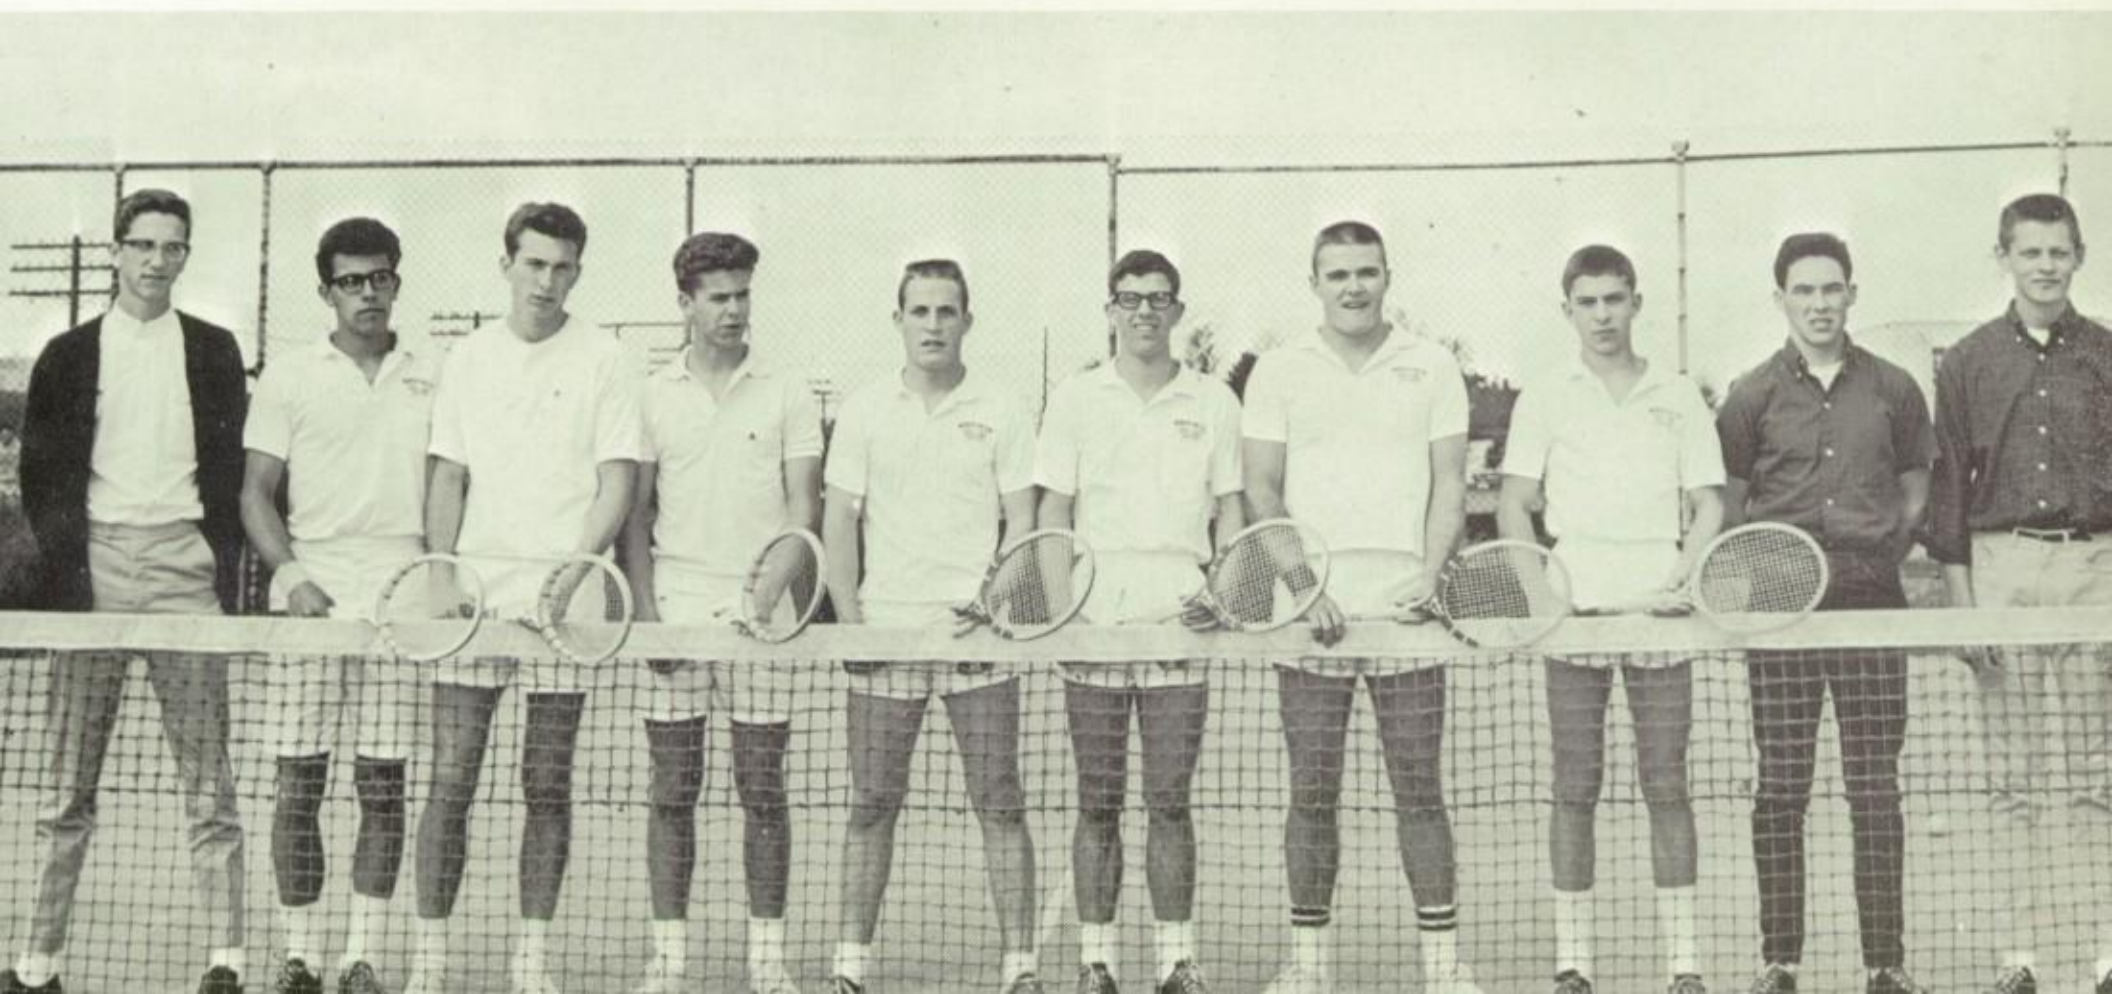

This years Viking Tennis Team ended season play with a respectable 5 wins and 4 losses record. North then placed highly in the District matches ending with 29 points and headed only by South with 35. North placed first and second in the district doubles with the team of Doug Tokerud and Terry Souza the champions and Scott Berdess and Bill DeBoard the runner-ups. The outstanding player of the year seemed to be Gary Hughes. He compiled a 7 win 2 loss record, beating Craig Cooley of South.

Here Comes The Circus!

Ringmaster for the Viking Brothers Circus Show was Denny Cox shown here introducing the next act.

"Big D" was pantomimed by Judy Kolb and Bev Crane with Gary Flager, Earl Lang, Mel Potts, and Fred Mueller assisting the girls.

"Come to the Fair" was the song that Mary Brockway sang for all to enjoy.

Many extras filled the show some of these were Shari Moore, Cheryl Unruh, and Kathi Randall who were "heads".

Male vocalist of the show, Jim Taylor, belted out his songs in a unique fashion.

Nina Kutter and Jan Nestman contrast in dancing, but both danced their way into the hearts of the student body.

Organist, Scott Berdell completed a wonderful show with his brisk and lively numbers.

"An Onion Is A Lily"

Carrying out the theme of the Junior Class Talent Show was Kathy Holman with an original poem.

The jazz influence was skillfully interpreted by blithe Marty Mogan.

All was quiet when Tandra Bahr began to sing a folk ballad.

Six Hillbillies from Tennessee crashing the Beatnik hangout were: Sue Musser, Carol Mulligan, Peggy Barker, Kathy Flesher, Carolyn Clagget, and Connie Brown.

A unique act of juggling and rope tricks was performed by Johnny Delp.

Valhalla

Opening entertainment in "Valhalla" was presented by these boys performing an instrumental act.

Wanda Savin exhibits her acrobatic act to music while Bob Moore sits mystified in the background.

Interpretive dancer Karla Dietz and her partner Donna Warren bow to the audience after dancing to "Gonna Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair."

Betty Whitmire devotes herself to Merle Yarnell's every wish, colorfully enlivening the backdrop for "Valhalla."

Setting the mood for "Valhalla" were these Vikings Dianne DePuy, Bob Moore, Larry Moody, Bill Johnson, Jeena Kerber, Joe Van Meter, and Bill Snead.

Larry Martin highlights the talent show with a solo of "It's Wonderful to Be Young."

Twirp Day

"Onward slaves!" This was a typical scene when the tables were turned on Twirp Day.

The highlight of the "Twirpanny" was the crowning of Miss Twirp, Framca McLeod.

This handsome couple consists of a lovely little miss, (Ron Colburn), and her boyfriend the "Green Monster" (Jim Shepherd)."

Tom Gardner came to school portraying the Jolly "Ho Ho Ho" Green Giant.

You can't expect a better prize for the best costume on Twirp Day than a piece of celery. These were awarded at the Twirp Day assembly.

“Brigadoon”

Greeting the Prom goers and distributing the programs were Miss Matlock and Mrs. Gloor with Mr. Carleton observing.

Native Scotchman, Mr. James Johnston announced one of the many couples at the Prom.

Many thirsty boys such as Steve Ostrin, Mike Duncan, Chris Feskens and Chuck Baker gathered around the refreshments table waiting to be served by Mrs. Corn.

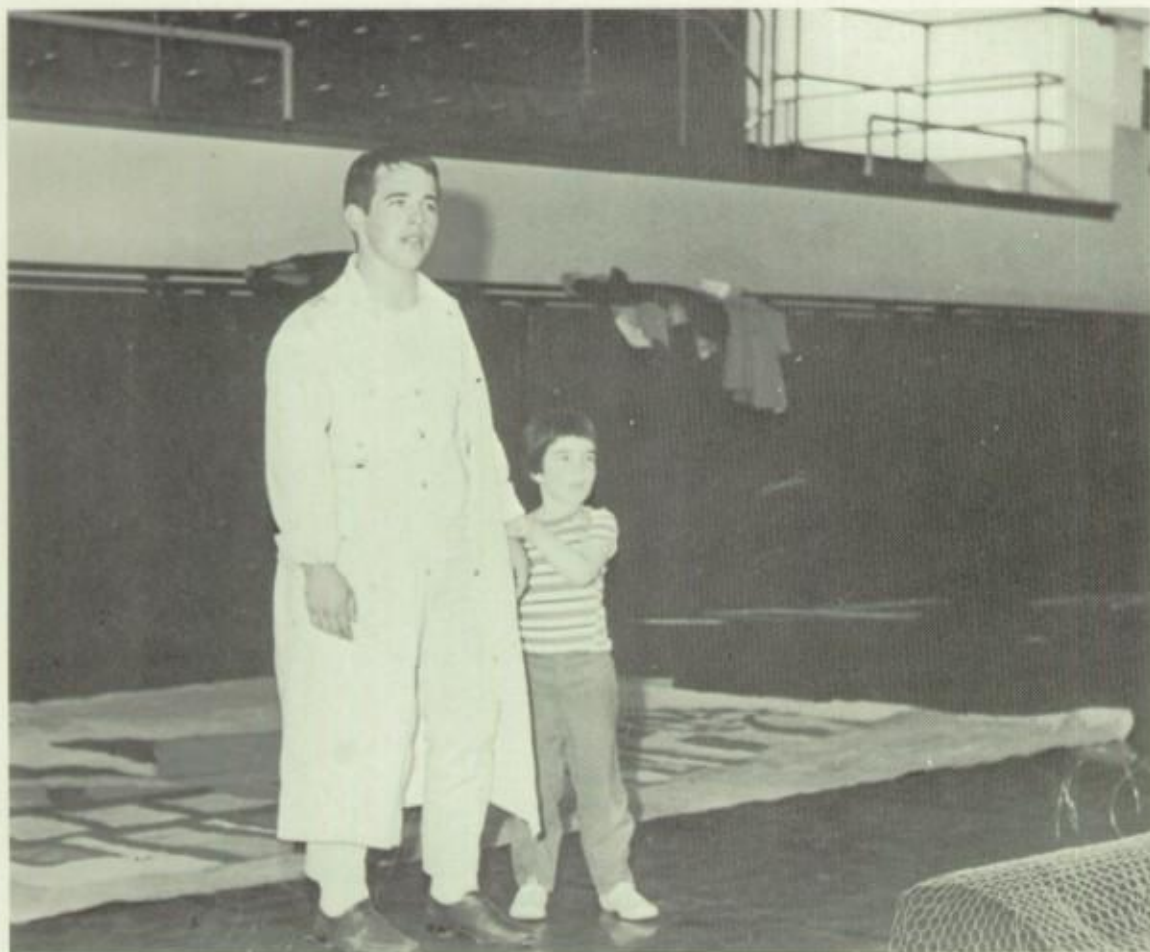

"Thank goodness! They haven't really deserted us."

Dancing to the music of Bill De Souza and his orchestra were Jean Hunter and Dennis Wilken, a typical Prom couple.

“Brigadoon” takes Shape

Mike Smith wearily hopes that the back drop behind him is the last he will have to paint for quite a while. His helper is Mr. Corn's daughter, Lori.

Lucile Anderson, Tandra Bahr, and a mystery girl, found Bruce Buckelman's antics with his new broom quite funny.

"No rain today!", comments Mr. Corn after testing the clouds.

"Go right ahead Chris, you've done beautifully so far!", comments Jody Backe.

"No, no, no!" screams Dave Smart, "Don't staple the mural to the floor."

Nina will always remember the new friends she has come to know during her brief stay at Vik Villa. Nina wishes to express her deepest gratitude to everyone at North High for a very wonderful year. The entire student body cannot help but remember Nina for her warm personality and the many contributions she has made to us all.

Bonita Boies, the third member of her family to receive the homemaking award, is congratulated by Mr. Hanauska.

All stand for the processional of graduates during the senior awards assembly.

Mike Barham, recipient of the outstanding awards in the band, pep band, and orchestra, receives his trophy and congratulations from Mr. Hanauska.

Nina Kutter, foreign exchange student from Switzerland, bids farewell to the student body and presents Mr. Carleton with a Swiss "victory bell" for North High.

Outstanding senior from Athleta was Anita Eckstein.

Helen Paulus Girl of the Year

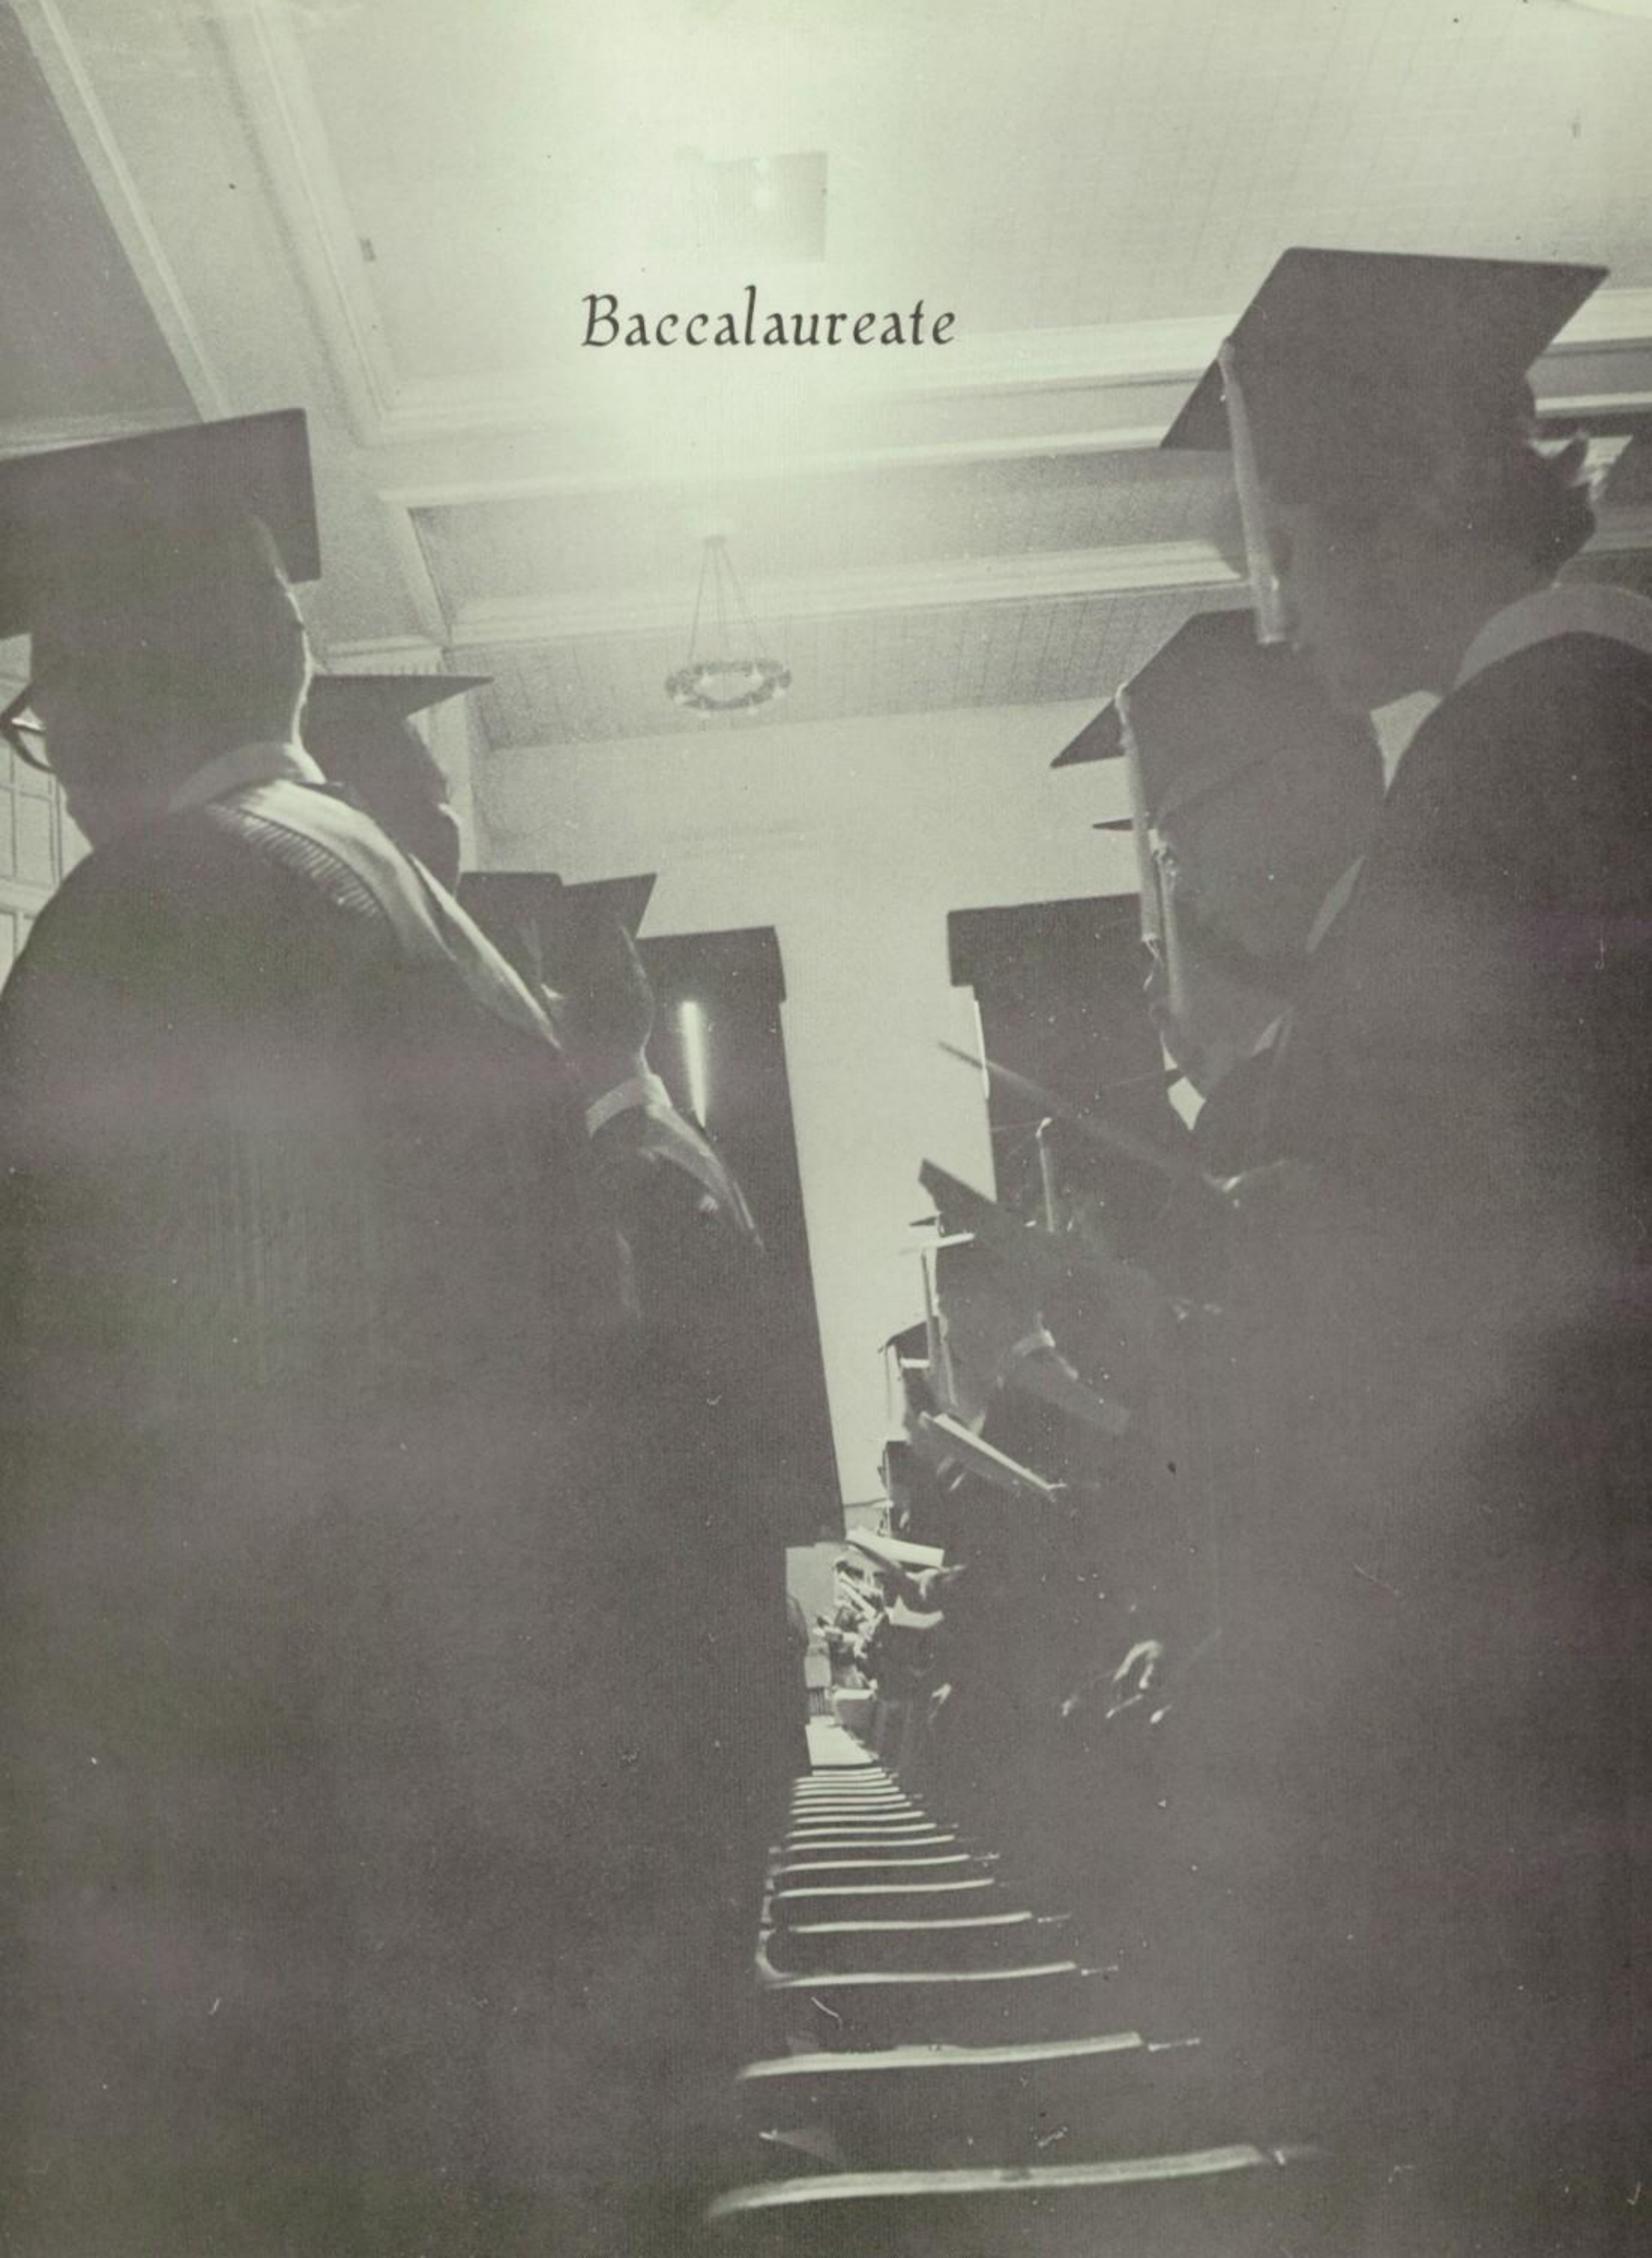

Helen Paulus, recipient of the Girl of the Year award, is congratulated by George Hanauska at the senior farewell assembly. Helen has been active in numerous organizations including French Club, Future Teachers of America, National Honor Society, and Y-Teens. She represented North High in the state competition for D.A.R. Good Citizen and was French Club princess in Vik Varieties.
